

a Prof. Anjoo Sharan Upadhyaya
OPEN LECTURES (All are welcome)
(September, 2011):

Wednesday Sept. 7th: OPEN LECTURE:

“Female Empowerment in South Asia: Past and Present” --- a presentation and discussion with Prof. Anjoo Upadhyaya.

Dept of Political Science, History and the Faculty of the Humanities.

Time: 10.00-12.00

Venue: 1D 328

Tuesday Sept. 13th : OPEN LECTURE:

“Women and Ecology in South Asia”

Dept of Eco-Philosophy

Time: 15.30 – 17.00:

Venue: 3C 413

Thursday Sept. 15th: OPEN LECTURE:

“Public and Private Social Work in India”

Dept. of Sociology and Social Work

Time: 14.15 – 16.00:

Venue: 3D 504

Prof. Anjoo Sharan Upadhyaya, Director of the Nepali Research Centre, former dean of Social Science, former Head of Political Science at Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India.

OPEN Lecture Series (All are welcome):

The Department of Religious Studies and the Faculty of Teacher's Training proudly present:

A Lecture Series on “Peace Management and Conflict Resolution in South Asia”:

- 1) “Peace Building in a Multicultural Society: The Banaras Experience”
(Wednesday, August 31st, 13.30-15.00, Venue: 3B 512).
- 2) “Peace Education in Hinduism”
(Wednesday, September 7th, 13.30-15.00, Venue: 3B 512).
- 3) “Conflict Resolution in a Globalized South Asia”
(Wednesday, September 14th, 13.30-15.00, Venue: 3B 512).

Each lecture is a separate approach to the issue of peace management and conflict resolution in South Asia. In its entirety, the three lecture series is designed to give the audience a sound orientation in the topic. Each lecture, however, is independent.

The speaker:

Professor Priyanka Upadhyaya

Chair Holder: UNESCO Chair for Peace

Director: Malaviya Centre for Peace Research

Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi (India)

For more information contact:

Marc Katz (054/ 83 45 99 and 054 / 700 1293)

marc.katz@kau.se