

Welcome to seminars on Pakistani history and culture!

Sarwat Mohiuddin besöker KTH 21 – 23 mars och ger tre föreläsningar om Pakistans historia och kultur. Föreläsningarna sker på engelska.

Ms. Sarwat Mohiuddin visits KTH on March 21st – 23rd and will give three seminars on Pakistani history and culture. The seminars are held in English.

Sarwat Mohiuddin skriver för närvarande på en bok som jämför kulturen i Pakistan och i Sverige. Hon har tidigare föreläst om Pakistans kultur vid Uppsala och Lunds universitet samt vid Universitetet i Oslo.

Ms Mohiuddin is presently working on a book, comparing Swedish with Pakistan culture. She has previously given popular lectures on Pakistan Culture at the universities in Uppsala, Lund and Oslo, Norway.

Lättare förtäring serveras.

Snacks will be served.

Anmälan görs på / Sign up at:

<http://www.kth.se/om/internationellt/1.6671>

Seminar schedule:

Time	Topic	Venue
Wednesday, March 21 st 17.00 – 19	Historical Background & Present Pakistan. 1. Indus Valley Civilization --- Independence. 2. Present Day Pakistan (including the status of women).	F1, Lindstedsvägen 22, KTH main campus
Thursday, March 22 nd 17.00 – 19	Culture & Folk Tradition of Pakistan. Special focus on the province of the Punjab.	F1, Lindstedsvägen 22, KTH main campus
Friday, March 23 rd 15.00 - 17	Introduction by KTH Vice President Ramon Wyss on the KTH project in Pakistan. Sufism & the Significance of Sufi Poetry & Music in Today's World.	F1, Lindstedsvägen 22, KTH main campus

