

Call for Papers

International Conference Conflict, Peace and Development in South Asia

Colombo, Sri Lanka
January 8-10, 2004

In cooperation with International Center for Conflict Prevention and Management, Sydney – Australia; and some universities, private and public organizations in the United States, South Asia and elsewhere

Although the focus of the meeting will be on political, ethnic, religious and regional conflicts within and between countries in South Asia, papers related to Peace Economics and Peace Science; conflicting issues in environment, natural resources, health care and development in general are also welcome. Some of the suggested topics specifically related to South Asia are:

- Conflict and Peace Science Theory
- Defense and Peace Economics
- Nuclear Proliferation
- Arms Spending and Trade
- Peace Keeping
- Trade and Conflict
- Economic Conversion
- Democracy and Conflict
- Ethnic and Religious Conflict
- Small Arms and Terrorism
- Security and Disaster Management

Prospective participants are requested to register as soon as possible. Persons desiring to present a paper are advised to send a one page abstract. The deadline for registration is September 19th 2003.

Registration Form

Name: _____ Tel: _____
Address: _____ Fax: _____
E-mail: _____

Professional Affiliation: _____

Title of the Paper: _____ ☐ Abstract enclosed

Please send this registration form to Prof. Manas Chatterji, School of Management, Binghamton University, Binghamton, NY 13902. Tel.# (607) 777-2475. Fax (607) 777-4422. email: mchatter@binghamton.edu with a personal check/foreign draft for $25.00 (for participants from Developing Countries) and US $50.00 (for participants from Developed Countries), payable to MIND. Please note that any personal checks should be made in USD and drawn on a US Bank.