

MUSK

fakir arts & indian dance

In oriental heat and the lure of passion, where Cupid plays amongst pleasure and pain.

Fullblooded, fiery Gypsy and Temple dance. Terrifying and wondrous Fakir arts.
Fusion. Desire of deliveration.

Intoxicating rhythms of India, and the pulse of the Orient,
where the lustre scenario merge
in to an unyielding crescendo.

MUSK Indian Dance & Magic Theatre

MUSK is Stage Performance, Theatre, Dance, Story Telling and Workshops, in Indian, Oriental and Western fusion.

With performances and workshops for children, youth and adult audiences, MUSK has toured all of Sweden as well as India.

Much of our research we perform on location in India. Our interest is great in classical arts, folklore and the old ways of man, her spiritual and artistic origin and healing traditions.

This legacy, given to us by mothers and fathers. Here it comes to life in the light of the stage, in the tapestry of the twenty-first century.

At your disposal. Engaging and bonding.

This is World Culture, Masala Relish!

Our Workshops: Odissi/bollywood/drama/music/yoga/meditation

The Jungle Temple Myth

Among Gods & Demons

The Temple Dancer

The Pirate

A temple ruin.
Deep in the jungles of India. Here the adventure begins. The Pirate and the Temple Dancer open the chest lid to an ancient myth of India. And out flows the dazzling Ramayana saga, that sweeps us along for a swashbuckling ride. Through jungles and clinging vines. Through mystic India, romance and other scares. In the never-ending battle between good and evil...

A wondrous storytelling performance for children and the whole family!
