

URBAN RIGHT TO WATER AND SANITATION

A Photo-Exhibition at

2011 World Water Week in Stockholm

“Responding to Global Changes: Water in an Urbanising World”

21-26 August, 2011

Exhibition Stand AG: 10

A photographic depiction on how effectively are the residents of Delhi – one of the most highly populated cities of the world – enjoying their right to water and sanitation? Will the teeming millions be ever able to enjoy this basic right?
