

Pakistan Workshop 2006

Programme

20 Years of the Pakistan Workshop
Reflections and Directions

Friday

16.00-18.00 Reception at the Rook How

20.00 Dinner (The King's Arms, Hawkshead)

Saturday

9.30-11.00- Opening (Chair: Arif Zaman)

9.30- 10.30 Introduction of the participants

10.30-11.00 'A brief history of the 20 years of the Pakistan Workshop' (Title to be confirmed), Pnina Werbner, University of Keele

11.00- 11.15 Coffee break/ Ghap Shap

11.15- 12.45 Islam in Pakistan (Chair: Sean McLoughlin)

11.15-12.00 Sectarian violence in Pakistan. Identity Building with Political Islam, Katja Riikonen, University of Bradford

12.00-12.45 Social change in the Tribal Areas (Title to be confirmed), Mariam Abou Zahab, CERI, Paris

12.45-13.30 Lunch (Pakistani khana)

13.30-15.00 Walk in the woods

15.00-16.30 Islam in the British diaspora (Chair: Pnina Werbner)

15.00-15.45 Religious devotion in Mirpur, 'Azad' Kashmir, and its transformation in the UK diaspora, Sean McLoughlin, University of Leeds

15.45- 16.30 Imams, 'ulama and Sufis: providers of bridging social capital for British Pakistanis?, Philip Lewis, University of Bradford

16.30-16.45 Coffee Break/ Ghap Shap

16.45-18.15 'South Asians have culture, Pakistanis have problems'? (Chair: Virinder Kalra)

16.45-17.30 Generations, networks, exclusiveness and pollution: crime and attribution of blame amongst Bradford Pakistanis, Marta Bolognani, University of Leeds
17.30-18.15 Intergenerational differences in body composition in 8-9 year old British Pakistani children: A pilot study, Emily Henderson, University of Durham

19.00 Dinner / Masti... (The Armadale, near Ulverston)

Sunday

9.30-11.00 Religious and material dreams (Chair: Mariam Abou-Zahab)

9.30-10.15 The Islamic true dream phenomenon within contemporary Jihadist Militant groups: a case study of the dreams of Mullah Omar, Iain Edgar, University of Durham

10.15-11.00 'Consuming the Punjabi Dream: reflections on commodity culture and politics amongst the Muslim middleclass of the late colonial period'
Marcus Daechsel, University of Edinburgh

11.00- 11.15 Coffee break/ Ghap Shap

11.15- 12.45 Siraiki (Chair: Waqas Butt)

11.15-12.00 Impacts of diversified schooling systems on indigenous culture and society. A case study of Siraiki speaking area (Central Pakistan), Akhtar Abbas, University of Tampere, Finland

12.00-12.45 Countering Islamic Fundamentalism and Punjabi Hegemony through 'Siraiki di Fariyad' by Safeer Lashari, Nukhbah Langah, University of Leeds

12.45-13.30 Lunch (Pakistani khana)

13.30-15.00 After many reflections...time for directions... (Chair: Marta Bolognani)

15.00 Closure