

The Development Studies Seminar, Department of Sociology in cooperation with
SASNET – Swedish South Asia Studies Network
Lund University

Arranges a guest lecture with Prof. Sucha Singh Gill, Punjabi University, Patiala

Marginalised Peasantry Seeking Safe Exit in India in the Era of Globalisation

Time: Wednesday 7 June, 15.15 – 17

Venue: Department of Sociology, Paradisgatan 5, Conference room 335, 2nd floor.

Prof. Sucha Singh Gill is professor of Economics at Punjabi University and is a leading expert on agriculture and rural development in India. He has written extensively on agricultural economics and change, land reforms, resources mobilisation and farmers movements. In 2001 he authored Land Reforms in India, Vol. 6: Intervention for Capitalist Transformation in Punjab and Haryana (New Delhi: SAGE). During June 2006 he is guest professor at NIAS in Copenhagen and the Department of Sociology, Lund University.

Cheese and wine will be served after the seminar.

All are welcome!

Staffan Lindberg & Göran Djurfeldt & Olle Frödin