

Appendix 4

Staffan Lindberg's individual activities 2003

General activities

Course leader, South Asia course at Österlen's Folk High Schools, lectures and seminars in connection with that

Work with planning NorfAsia

Special activities

9 – 11 January Conference on Development Studies at Lund, see description above
Panel leader 10 January

7 February: Guest lecture on Development Studies and South Asia studies for beginners in Sociology, 150 students

12 February: UD: India Forum
Meeting Anders Johnsson at the Ministry of Education
UD: Anna Lindstedt and Anna Jakenberg

14 March: Member of committee for Malin Arvidson PhD thesis "Demanding Values. Participation, Empowerment, and NGOs in Bangladesh", Sociology, Lund University

17-21 March: Lecture on fieldwork among oppressed, SSAAPS Methodology course for doctoral students

3-4 April: Discussant: Religion and Violence, Roskilde

2-4 June: Lecture on Indian Farmers' Movements at a Doctoral Course, Bornholm

28 August: Lecture about "Where is India going?" at Sida, Stockholm

25 September Lecture in the South Asia course Göteborg (Wil Burghorn)

1 October, India-China research programme meeting

16-17 October Discussant Sida seminar on growth and poverty

30 October: Member of committee for Monica Erwér's PhD thesis "Transforming Politics; Gender, Power and Agency in Kerala, South India", at Padrigy in Göteborg