

Staffan Lindberg Felicitation Seminar

Thursday April 8, 13.00 – 17.30 in Sal 3, Department of Sociology, Paradisgatan 5, Lund

You are invited! Due to space limitations, the number of participants is restricted. Register now, to be sure to get a seat. Registrations by mail to Goran.Djurfeldt@soc.lu.se.

Speakers

Christian Andersson, Lasse Berg, Göran Djurfeldt, Björn Hettne, Gudmund Jannisa, Preben Kaarsholm, Anna Lindberg, Stig Toft Madsen, Karie Mbuende, Gunnar Olofsson, Magnus Wennerhag.

For the organisers,

Göran Djurfeldt

P.T.O for Programme

Programme

13.00 – 15.00

Göran Djurfeldt: Development as a normative and intellectual concern, from Thaiyur to Attac.

Lasse Berg: Images of Asia (preliminary title)

Partha Nath Mukherji: Farmers' interests and Tata Nano (preliminary title)

Anna Lindberg: The New Kerala Model: 'Prosperity of the Family' through self-help groups

Björn Hettne: South Asian Conflict Pattern Revisited

Stig Toft Madsen: Ajit Singh, s/o Charan Singh

15.00 – 15.30

Refreshments

15.30 – 17.30

Karie Mbuende: Land Reform in Namibia: between equity and productivity

Gudmund Jannisa: East Timor - a focus on the women

Preben Kaarsholm: topic to be announced

Christian Andersson: Narvana Revisited

Magnus Wennerhag: topic to be announced

Gunnar Olofsson: What a cemetery can teach a sociologist

18.00 Drinks, mingle, Skype-sessions with absent friends

19.00 Buffet