Tamil Summer School

What is the TSS?

The Tamil Summer School is an intensive six-week course in spoken Tamil organised by the Faculty of Linguistics of Pondicherry Institute of Linguistics and Culture (PILC), a Govt. of Pondicherry institution, known for its research activities and training programmes and workshops.

The course was initiated in 1998 by the Department of Social Sciences, French Institute, Pondicherry to offer training to language researchers in Humanities and Social sciences. PILC has been organising this course since 2004. The TSS is conducted every year in July-August. The medium of teaching is English as well as Tamil.

The TSS focuses on Spoken Tamil rather than on the classical and written forms being taught in European Universities. Two levels of spoken Tamil courses are offered: Basic and Intermediate.

Why Spoken Tamil?

Tamil is an international language spoken in different countries like India, Sri Lanka, Malaysia. It shows significant social and regional variations and is known for its diglossic nature, in as much as it possesses distinct written and spoken forms, affecting syntax, lexicon and phonetics.

The TSS primarily aims at filling this important gap in Tamil studies by offering students and scholars a summer programme stressing the spoken variety.

The TSS provides an opportunity

- for scholars to acquire linguistic tools to do field studies in Tamil.
- for those who are trained in the written form and others to be able to communicate in Tamilnadu and other Tamil-speaking areas.

The TSS programme will be conducted for six days per week during a period of six weeks (i.e. from 10 July 2006 to 19 August 2006).

The courses are based on written materials both in English and Tamil designed specially for the TSS 2006.

Basic level

At the basic level spoken Tamil is introduced. Drills in pronunciation will be given by experienced professors. Basic vocabulary, grammar and conversational materials will be provided in the second phase. Tamil scripts and simple sentences are taught enabling the students to speak and read Tamil.

Intermediate level

Spoken Tamil is taught with conversational materials throughout the course. Lessons in Modern Tamil Grammar will be given stage by stage with structures of Tamil sentences. Students will be trained to read primary level lessons, short stories and songs. Vocabulary lists will be provided for practice.

Fieldwork activities

The TSS will also include practical training and drilling in Spoken Tamil in the context of fieldwork with very experienced research assistants.

Lecture series

During the TSS reputed scholars will give special lectures on Tamil language, literature, culture and society.

NB: According to the number, background and standard of participants the organisation team will adapt the level of the course.

Participants

Basic level

Eligible participants are students or researchers from foreign or Indian universities or institutions, who have not studied Tamil. Preference will be given to research scientists.

Intermediate or advanced level

Eligible participants are students or researchers from foreign or Indian universities or institutions, who have studied written Tamil for at least one year and have a good knowledge of basic grammar.

Students will be divided into two or three classes according to their proficiency in Tamil and according to the number of students registered (about 6 students per class).

Enrolment

Enrolment starts on 1 March, 2006 and registration will be closed on the 28 April, 2006. Registration may be possible beyond 30 April under special circumstances.

For registration, particulars are required in the prescribed format.
Kindly send it in advance to reserve your seat.

Registration fees for 2006 will be Rs. 12,000

This includes the cost of the materials and field visits provided by us. Participants have to arrange for their accommodation. However, Institute will assist the scholars get the type of accommodation and food they prefer.

Your stay in Pondicherry
