

LUND UNIVERSITY

Embassy of India
Sweden & Latvia

LUND

Managing Diversity: The Indian Experience

Swedish South Asian Studies Network (SASNET) at Lund University organises a one-day seminar in collaboration with the Embassy of India in Stockholm

Thursday 14 April 2011, 09.30-17.00

Venue: Pictura Hall, Main University Building (Universitetshuset) 3rd floor, Paradisgatan 2, Lund

Programme:

09.30–09.45

Welcome by Professor Per Eriksson, Vice Chancellor, Lund University
Inaugural address by the Governor H.E. Mr. Göran Tunhammar, Governor of Skåne County

09.45–10.30 Presentation:

H.E. Ashok Sajjanhar, Ambassador of India to Sweden and Latvia
on "Managing Diversity: The Indian Experience"

10.30–11.30 Presentation:

Dr. Stig Toft Madsen, Research Associate,
Nordic Institute of Asian Studies (NIAS), Copenhagen University
on "Managing External Complexities: India as a Soft Power"

11.30–13.00 Lunch break

13.00–13.45 Presentation:

Dr. Christina Nygren, Visiting Research Fellow
Department of Oriental languages, Stockholm University on "Diversity in Indian theatre practices with special regard to folk traditions"

13.45–14.30 Presentation:

Professor Staffan Lindberg, Dept. of Sociology, Lund University on "The Role of Industry and State Policies in Rural Development
– A Tamil Nadu Perspective"

14.30–15.00 Coffee/tea break

15.00–15.15 Presentation:

H.E. Ashok Sajjanhar, Ambassador of India to Sweden and Latvia
on "India's Economy in the 21st Century"

15.15–16.00 Presentation:

Mr. Ulf Pehrsson, Vice President, Govt. and Industry Relations, Ericsson on "Doing business in India"

16.00–16.45 Presentation:

Professor Sushil Khanna, Indian Institute of Management Kolkata, and ICCR guest Professor, Asia Research Centre, Copenhagen Business School (CBS), on "Regional and Social Diversity: The New Bourgeoisie in India"

16.45–17.00 Summary/comments on "Managing Diversity: The Indian Experience"

Dr. Anna Lindberg, Director, Swedish South Asian Studies Network (SASNET)

Registration for the seminar should be made before Friday 8 April 2011, by sending an e-mail to Lars.Eklund@sasnet.lu.se

The seminar on "Managing Diversity: The Indian Experience" is organised as part of Lund City's Round of Integration and Multitude (Lunds Integrations- och Mångfaldsrunda).

SASNET

For more information, <http://www.sasnet.lu.se/managingdiversity.html>

Embassy of India invites to a Cultural Programme with Anette Pooja

Thursday 14 April 2011, 17.30-19.30

Venue: Old Bishop's House (Gamla Biskopshuset), Biskopsgatan 1, Lund

Anette Pooja from Gothenburg performs a classical Odissi dance performance

Songs by Shree Kripa from Malmö

at a Reception hosted by the Embassy of India in Sweden in connection with the Seminar on Managing Diversity: The Indian Experience

More information: www.sasnet.lu.se/managingdiversity.html

Registration for the social and cultural programme should be made before Friday 8 April
by sending an e-mail to Lars.Eklund@sasnet.lu.se