

LUND
UNIVERSITY

SASNET

SASNET Seminar

– in collaboration with the Department of Political Science, Lund University

Dr. Jagannath Prasad Panda

Research Fellow, Institute for Defense
Studies and Analysis, New Delhi, India

holds a lecture about:

The Pattern of Sino-Indian Relations: Evaluating the Strategic Discourse

Wednesday 29 September 2010, 10.15–12.00

Venue: Main conference hall (room 366), 2nd floor,
Dept. of Political Science, Paradisgatan 5, Lund

Dr. Panda works as a Research Fellow with a rank of Associate Professor at the Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (IDSA), a premier think-tank body in India, since August 2010. He is also the Managing Editor for the Peace and Development Digest, published by Foundation for Peace and Sustainable Development in New Delhi.

He defended his doctoral dissertation in 2007 at the School of International Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi.

His research interests are:

- China, India and South Asia
- China, India & Multilateral Institutions
- China, India and Regional Security Issues
- China's foreign & security policy.

Dr. Panda is currently involved in research work at the Institute for Security and Development Policy (ISDP) in Stockholm. He is preparing a paper on "China, India and BRIC: Realist Interpretation of a Multi-polar World Order".

All are welcome!